EXCERPT FROM DIRECTOR, FBIS DAILY LOG - 13 February 1969

1. Jake Goodwin, Asst. to DCI, called regarding the availability of old FBIS tapes now in the possession of the U.S. Archives. Those particularly at issue at this time are the Lord Haw Haw and Tokyo Rose tapes, all unclassified, deposited in 1949, with the stipulation that they not be released without permission of CIA. A check with the General Counsel's office indicated no objections to their being made available to the public by the Archivist, except to warn the recipient that his use of them might involve the assumption of copyright risks.

After consulting [redacted] I notified Goodwin that we (L&R) would 25X1 contact Archives (Mrs. Coleman, Code 13-36725) to remove the CIA control on these specific tapes. Also, L&R is to get an inventory of what Archives has in the way of FBIS tapes and what controls, if any, are placed on this material. cc: L&R
